Pocahontas Middle Introduced To The Rule Of Law Program

What:

Pocahontas Middle School will partner with the Henrico County Bar Association as the association introduces the Rule of Law Program to Henrico County students. This event is the inaugural event whereby the rule of law is introduced to students by personal interaction with practitioners. The mission of the Rule of Law Project is to enhance the way students learn about the rule of law as the basis of all of our rights and responsibilities as American citizens.

“We are excited to welcome Rule of Law to Pocahontas Middle School,” said Principal Kim Sigler. “This program is an excellent opportunity for our students to meet and interact with legal professionals from our community.”

This year’s event features Justice Cleo Powell of the Supreme Court of Virginia, Virginia Attorney General Kenneth T. Cuccinelli, II, Delegate Peter Farrell and a host of fellow attorneys and local law enforcement officials.

When:

Monday, November 19th from 9 a.m. to 11 a.m.

Media coverage is welcomed at the event.
